Introduction

The Housing Assistance Fund (HAF) Web-based system was developed in 2024 to introduce new efficiencies to agencies seeking to support participants in finding, securing, and retaining safe, decent, and affordable housing as part of their recovery. This application uses the latest Internet technology to provide a safe, secure method to approved users for the following functions:

- View site-specific current and historical HAF information for individuals registered through your agency;
- Register applicants for the HAF program and request initial supports and submit redetermination reviews; and
- View the outcome of all requests including details on payment or rationale for denial.

System Access Requirements & Security Information

Due to the confidential nature of the information contained in the HAF Web-based system, users must possess an active login and password to obtain access. It is expected that any login/password will NOT be shared; this will preserve the integrity of the system and user access may be terminated if it has been determined to be shared.

In order to successfully access this secure Web-based system, users must have access to the Internet. To successfully view the system, the computer used must have an Internet browser that will allow viewing of 128-bit encrypted transmission.

Advanced Behavioral Health, Inc., is committed to protecting confidential applicant information and ensuring compliance with state and federal regulations regarding privacy and confidentiality. With ABH's security infrastructure in place as well as the security built into your own browser, we are confident that your online information is protected from those individuals not approved for access. ABH uses 128-bit encryption during your online sessions to safeguard your data. Encryption is essentially a sophisticated way of scrambling the information you enter online before it leaves your computer, so that it will be totally unreadable if it is intercepted by another party.

Other Security Features

We have a firewall in place, which is highly sophisticated software and hardware that reviews data coming in and out of our system, so that only authorized users are able to pass information in to our HAF Web-based system. Users have limited access to the minimally necessary applicant-specific, site-specific current and historical authorization information stored in our HAF system, but are restricted from access to any clinical data. The data entered by system users are stored on secure servers within ABH. ABH servers physically reside in a locked data center and are protected against data loss. The data center stores data entered in a backup file three times a day and maintains these backup files outside of the organization for redundancy and recovery purposes. To help you ensure that you are connected to the HAF Web-based system during your online sessions, ABH uses digital identity verification. ABH has a digital server certification from GoDaddy.com, Inc., which your browser uses each time you sign on to let you verify that you are connected to ABH, Inc. This certificate enables the IIS server to perform SSL encryption at the 256-bit level. The server certification can be viewed by clicking on the padlock symbol at the top of the page by the URL. Lastly, we have other security measures that we have put in place which are HIPAA compliant and reflective of industry standard. These security measures are in place to guarantee that we meet our commitment to protecting and serving the applicants served by HAF, as well as improving the efficiency of your agency.

Using the System – Access

Because of the need to protect information collected by ABH, access to the HAF Web-based system is restricted to approved users only. To obtain access to the system an individual must be employed by a provider approved by the Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services (DMHAS) and request and receive a unique, individualized login and password which is to be used by the registered user only.

Basic System Display Information

The following items appear throughout the system:

Command Buttons:

	Clicking the Submit or Save buttons will save the information that has been typed in and move the user to the next step.
	In order to print a copy of information entered into a Web-based system screen, users can click on the printer icon .

Data Entry Fields:

	Text Boxes are used for entry of free-form text fields, such as names, numbers, and dates. Some text boxes assist the user by showing the format next to the field. For example, numbers should be entered into one of the following formats: Phone/Fax Number: XXX-XXX-XXXX Date: MM/DD/YYYY Dollars: XX.XX Please note that the system will not spell check your entries and you will not be able to edit information once it has been saved. Please take care enter information exactly as you want it stored.
	Drop-Down Selections (or Combo Boxes) are used for selecting values from a pre-determined list of allowed values for that field. The value can be selected either by clicking on the arrow at the right end of the Combo Box, or by typing the entry.
	Check Boxes are used when a response to a question is either Yes or No; if checked the response is Yes and if unchecked the response is No. Checkboxes may enable or disable other fields.
	Radio Buttons allow the user to choose an option from a group of selections. When radio buttons are present, only one option may be chosen.

Navigation Buttons:

	Clicking the Registration/Inquiry button brings the user back to the default (home) screen.
	Clicking the Logout button ends user's session and logs out of the Web-based system.
	Clicking the Back button exits the current screen and returns to the previous screen. Please note: this is not the "Back" button on your browser. This button can be found in the upper right-hand corner next to the printer icon.

Logging On to the Web-Based System

To access the HAF Web-based system, users will first need to log on to the Internet and go to the ABH Web site at www.abhct.com.

From this page users can:

- Select Program Log In, in the upper right hand corner, then HAF to log in.
- Select Programs & Services, then DMHAS Housing Assistance Fund (HAF) to view and print sample documentation, provider alerts, and other important program documents.

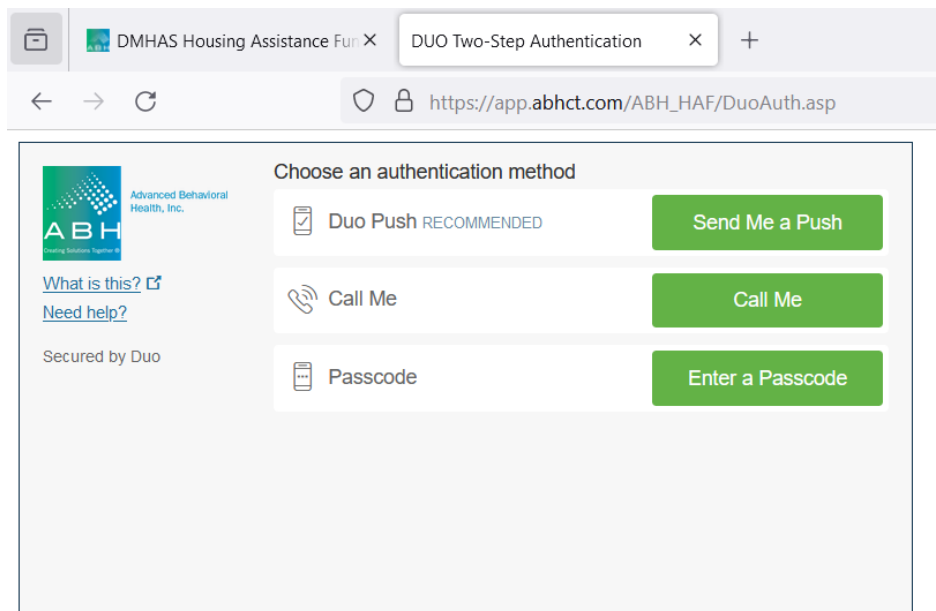

Once a user connects to the ABH Web site and navigates to the HAF login screen, s/he must enter a User ID and Password. Once the User ID and password have been entered, click the Log In button.

Tip: Occasionally, notices and announcements concerning system changes, maintenance, or service updates will appear on the login screen. Please read these notices and adjust accordingly.

If you have entered your User ID and Password correctly, you will be prompted to authenticate your login session using Duo.

Client registrations will sometimes flag as pending due to mismatched information. This could be due to a typo in your registration information, or outdated information on the HAF system that needs to be updated.

Client ID (+/-)	Registration Status (+/-)	Service Requests
	Pending	N/A

HAF staff will review the pending registration, as well as the information on file. When possible the registration will be released and you will then be able to continue on to request services for the applicant. Occasionally, staff will be unable to reconcile the information and will contact the requesting provider to re-register the client using corrected information.

Users can search for an existing client by using any combination of the fields listed on the Registration/Inquiry screen. Users may also filter for clients with the check boxes listed under Client ID.

- Open Registrations: Clients that have been registered with no service requests entered
- Pending Registrations: Registrations with mismatched information pending review
- Active Clients: Clients with approved service requests
- Inactive Clients: Clients with service requests that are pending review/determination
